The Discovery of Modernity – Vienna Around 1900

univie: winter school for Cultural Historical Studies
February 2–17, 2018, Vienna, Austria

Organization

The univie: winter school for Cultural Historical Studies takes place in Vienna, the capital of the former Habsburg Monarchy (and Austria of today) where traces of the outstanding culture of the late 19th and the beginning of the 20th century are still visible.

The two-week program combines first-class academic courses with an extensive social and cultural program. Vienna's rich cultural heritage, especially the museums, will lead to a thorough understanding of the impact of the fin de siècle on the modernization of Europe.

This unique program consists of high level lectures in the morning and guided excursions to the city of Vienna (e.g. Ringstraße) and to different museums (the Museum for Applied Arts, the Schönberg Center, and the Leopold Museum) in the afternoon.

Outside the framework of classes Vienna offers plenty of opportunities to explore additional museums and sights such as the St. Stephan's Cathedral, the Imperial Palace, and the Treasury.

The academic course environment encourages intercultural and social exchange and favours mutual understanding within the international student population. Participants thus broaden their horizon, meet colleagues from different fields of study, make friends for life and build connections for their future professional careers.

Courses

The univie: winter school offers four courses comprising 4 ECTS credits per course (corresponding to 32 contact hours). Each contact hour consists of 45 minutes of classroom teaching.

In the course of the two-week program students can attend two courses and obtain up to 8 ECTS credits.

The winter program courses offer a well-structured introduction to one of the most fascinating periods of Austria's intellectual history in a short time. The culture of the fin de siècle is one of the highlights in the history of the Habsburg Monarchy.

The preparatory seminar Vienna in the Last Decades of the Habsburg Monarchy 1848–1918 on the first weekend will provide students with the basic knowledge needed for their selected courses.

Students can select two out of four courses, which will allow them to gain deep insight into the society and culture of this fascinating period:

- Literature and Film in Vienna around 1900
- Art and Culture at the Turn of the Century in Vienna
- Psychoanalysis and Society in Sigmund Freud's Vienna
- Music and Musical Culture in Vienna around 1900

Successful participants will receive a transcript of the University of Vienna.
